ROSE D'EDEN

A precious essence distilled from the finest rose petals, Rose d'Eden reveals a refined aroma with delicate and velvety notes. Created by Fl'oreal Paradis, this perfume blends luxury and nature in a pure formula designed to enchant both skin and soul. Each drop is a sensory journey into an Eden - like garden, where beauty and harmony come together in perfect balance.

The History Of Rose d'Eden

Paradis Perfume started in 2018 in the second year of The “Nikola Tesla” Interactive Science Festival, and it was presented in diamond-shaped bottles. It was called DIAMOND DUST. It has evolved over the years, and now it is called ROSE D'EDEN in its best version.

A precious essence distilled from the finest rose petals, Rose d'Eden reveals a refined fragrance with delicate, velvety notes.

Discover the Essence of Refinement

At the heart of the composition, Damask rose reveals itself elegantly and seductively, as the signature of this fragrance, while Sambac jasmine and magnolia complement its refinement, creating an intense and harmonious floral bouquet. The fresh and energizing top notes bring a touch of vitality with aromas of lemon and orange. At the base, rosewood provides depth and long-lasting elegance.

A fragrance created to captivate from the very first touch!
